CHAPTER II

Management of coal mines

3. (1) On and from the appointed day, the management of all coal mines shall vest in the Central Government.

(2) With effect from the commencement of the provisions of sub-section (1), the coal mines specified in the Schedule shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to be coal mines the management of which shall vest, under sub-section (1), in the Central Government.

Provided that if, after the appointed day, the existence of any other coal mine comes to the knowledge of the Central Government, whether after an investigation or in pursuance of an intimation given to it under sub-section (5), or otherwise, the Central Government shall, by a notified order, make a declaration about the existence of such mine, and on and from the date of such declaration—

(i) the management of such coal mine shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to vest in the Central Government; and

(ii) such coal mine shall be deemed to be included in the Schedule, and thereupon the provisions of this Act shall become applicable thereto subject to the modification that for the words "appointed day", wherever they occur, the words, brackets and figures "date of the declaration made by the Central Government under sub-section (2) of section 3" shall be substituted.

(3) If any error or omission is noticed in the Schedule in relation to the name or address of the owner of a coal mine, the owner of such mine shall, within thirty days from the date on which this Act receives the assent of the President, bring such error or omission to the notice of the Central Government.

Management of coal mines to vest in the Central Government on the appointed day.

(7) If, after the appointed day, the Central Government is satisfied, whether from any information received by it or otherwise, that there has been any error, misstatement or misdescription in relation to the particulars of a coal mine included or deemed to be included in the Schedule or the name and address of the owner of any such coal mine, it may, by written order, correct such error, omission or misdescription, and on the issue of such written order the relevant entries in the Schedule shall stand corrected accordingly:

Provided that no such correction in relation to the ownership of a coal mine shall be made where such ownership is in dispute.

(8) Every person in charge, immediately before the date on which this Act receives the assent of the President, of the management of any coal mine being a coal mine not included or deemed to be included on the said date in the Schedule, shall, within thirty days from the said date, intimate to the Central Government the name and location of such mine and the name and address of the owner thereof.

(9) Where there is a dispute with regard to the declaration made by the Coal Board under the Coal Mines (Emergency) Provisions Act, 1971, to the effect that a coal mine contains working coal, the management of such coal mine shall, so far as relating anything contained in the said Act, exist in the Central Government under this Act and nothing contained in the first-mentioned Act shall apply, or be deemed ever to have applied, to the said coal mine.

4. Any contract, whether express or implied, providing for the management of any coal mine, made before the appointed day between the owner of such mine and any person in charge of the management of such mine immediately before the appointed day shall be deemed to have terminated on the appointed day.

5. (1) Pending the appointment of a Custodian under section 6 for any coal mine, the person in charge of the management of such mine immediately before the appointed day shall, on and from the appointed day, be in charge of the management of such mine for and on behalf of the Central Government; and the management of such mine shall be carried on by such person subject to the provisions contained in sub-sections (2) and (3) and such directions, if any, as the Central Government may give to him and no other person, including the owner, shall, so long as such management continues, exercise any powers of management in relation to the coal mine or give any direction with regard to such management.

(2) No person in charge of the management of a coal mine shall, without the previous approval of the person specified by the Central Government in this behalf in respect of that mine (hereinafter referred to as the "authorized person"):

(a) incur any expenditure from the assets pertaining to the coal mine other than that for the purpose of making routine payments of salaries or commissions to employees, agents or for the purpose of meeting the fixed or day-to-day expenditure;

(b) transfer or otherwise dispose of any such assets or create any charge, hypothecation or other encumbrance thereon;

(e) to deal in any manner with any movable forming part of such assets; and to give any third party the property out of the assets forming part of such assets;

(f) to enter into any contract of service or agency, whether express or implied, or any contract entered into wholly or partly with the coal mine or vary the terms and conditions of any such contract depending on the specified day;

(g) to enter into any other transaction relating to the business of the coal mine or vary the terms of any agreement relating to such business arising at the commencement of this Act.

(h) The approval of the collector of revenue may be given either generally in relation to certain classes of transactions relating to the coal mine or specially in relation to any of its transactions.

(i) Every person in charge of the management of a coal mine shall deposit all securities and documents of title to any lands pertaining to such mine at any Scheduled Bank or Nationalized Bank in which the owner or agent has its accounts maintained before the appointed day or at any branch of the State Bank in the place where the head office or the principal office of the coal mine is situated or where there is no branch of the State Bank in such place, the nearest branch of the State Bank; and no agent, clerk or clerk assistant shall be withdrawn from the Scheduled Bank, the Nationalized Bank or the State Bank, as the case may be, except with the permission of the authorized person.

Provided that nothing contained in this subsection shall apply to any security or document of title kept in trust with an Officer, Trustee or person in the service of a department of any mining company unless the Central Government, by notified order, otherwise directs.

Explanation.—In this clause, the word—

(a) "Scheduled Bank" means a bank included for the time being in the Second Schedule to the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934;

(b) "State Bank" means the State Bank of India constituted under the State Bank of India Act, 1931;

(c) "Nationalized Bank" means a corresponding new bank as defined in the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1969.

(j) Every person in charge of the management of a coal mine shall deliver to the collector of revenue in the following manner, by the Central Government, in respect of such mine, the following documents, namely:—

(a) the muster book or any other book in which containing all the names up to the appointed day, of the persons in charge of the management of the coal mine before the appointed day;

(b) the cheques or receipts issued to the coal mine, which are of any value of the coal mine;

(c) all registers or other books containing particulars relating to the investments or any other part relating to the coal mine including the details of the land and all loans granted or advanced on the

(k) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by subsection (i) and the powers mentioned in subsections (2), (4) and (5), any directions issued under subsection (i) may require the persons in charge of the management of a coal mine under this Act to furnish to the Central Government or to the authorised person such returns, statements and other information relating to the coal mine as may be mentioned in the direction.

(7) The persons in charge of the management of the coal mine under this Act shall be entitled to such remuneration, whether by way of allowance or salary or perquisites as the Central Government may fix; and any such person may, by giving one month's notice in writing to the Central Government of his intention so to do, relinquish charge of the management of the coal mine.

Power of Central Government to appoint
Custodians

6. (1) The Central Government may, as soon as it is convenient administratively so to do, appoint any person (including a Government company, whether in existence at the commencement of this Act or incorporated thereafter) as the Custodian for the purpose of taking over the management of one or more coal mines and the person so appointed shall carry on the management of such mines for and on behalf of the Central Government.

(2) (a) The Central Government may also appoint a person (including a Government company, whether in existence at the commencement of this Act or incorporated thereafter) as the Custodian-General for exercising supervision and control over all the coal mines the management of which is taken over under this Act and on such appointment, every Custodian appointed under subsection (1), shall act under the guidance, control and supervision of the Custodian-General.

(b) The Central Government may also appoint one or more persons as Additional Custodian-General or Deputy Custodian-General for assisting the Custodian-General in the exercise of his powers and duties under this Act and the Custodian-General may delegate all or such of his powers, as he may think fit, to the Additional Custodian-General or Deputy Custodian-General.

(c) Every Additional Custodian-General or Deputy Custodian-General shall exercise the powers delegated to him under the control and supervision of the Custodian-General.

Provided that where a Government company has been appointed as the Custodian in relation to a coal mine as Custodian-General, Additional Custodian-General or Deputy Custodian-General, shall exercise any power of supervision or control in regard to such coal mine.

(3) On the appointment of a Custodian under subsection (1), the charge of management of the coal mine shall vest in him and all persons in charge of the management of such mine immediately before such appointment shall cease to be in charge of such management and shall be bound to deliver to the Custodian all assets, books of account, registers or other documents in their custody relating to the coal mine.

(4) Notwithstanding any judgment, decree or order of any Court or anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the Official Liquidator or any Receiver appointed by any Court or any other person who has, on the appointed day, in his possession, custody or control any coal mine specified in the Schedule or any part thereof, shall forthwith deliver possession of the mine or such part thereof, as the case may be, to the Custodian.

(5) The Official Liquidator, Receiver or any other person who has, on the appointed day, in his possession, custody or control any books, docu-minutes or other papers relating to any coal mine specified in the Schedule, shall be liable to account for the said books, documents or other papers to the Central Government and shall deliver them up to the Custodian or to such person as the Custodian may specify in this behalf.

(9) The Central Government may authorise the Custodian to exercise some of the powers of the owner in relation to the mine, as may be necessary for the proper management of the coal mine and the Central Government may also give such directions to the Custodian as to his powers and duties and may deem desirable in the circumstances of the case, and no other person, including the owner, shall, so long as such management continues, exercise any powers of management in relation to the coal mine or give any directions with regard to such management.

(10) The Custodian may also apply to the Central Government at any time for instructions as to the manner in which he shall conduct the management of the coal mine or in relation to any other matter arising in the course of such management.

(11) The Custodian shall receive from the owner of the coal mine for the charge of management of such mine a sum of money under sub-section (1), such remuneration as the Central Government may fix.

Provided that where a Government company has been appointed as the Custodian of a coal mine, the remuneration of the Custodian shall be received from the funds of such coal mine in such proportion as may be determined by the Central Government.

- (b) The Custodian shall hold office:-
- (i) Additional Custodian-General,
 - (ii) Deputy Custodian-General,
 - (iii) Custodian.

shall hold office during the pleasure of the Central Government.

(12) The Central Government shall reserve to the exclusion of all other persons, any moneys due to the coal mine realised after the appointed day notwithstanding that such receipt pertains to a transaction made at any time before the appointed day.

7. (1) Every receipt of moneys due shall be given by the Central Government in duplicate and for the vesting in it under section 3 of the Management of Coal Mines Act, 1952.

Payment
amount.

(2) For every month during which the management of a coal mine remains vested in the Central Government, the amount referred to in sub-section (1) shall be computed at the rate of twenty paise per tonne of coal on the highest monthly production of coal from such mine during any month in the years 1959, 1970, 1971 and 1972.

Provided that if it is found as to any such coal mine that there was no production of coal during the year in which the amount referred to in sub-section (1) shall be computed at the rate of four paise per tonne of such Highest monthly coal production of the coal mine before the appointed day or may be computed and included by the Coal Board.

Provided further that in relation to a coal mine, the operations of which were suspended before the appointed day under the control of a managing contractor, the amount so computed under this sub-section, shall be in addition to the amount payable to the managing contractor in such circumstances as may be stipulated upon by or between the owner and such contractor, and in the event of there being no such agreement, in such circumstances as may be determined by the principal

17. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the provisions of this Act.

It is particularly well suited to inclusion in the curricula of the postgraduate programme, which could be possible for all or any of the following reasons, namely:

by the manner in which the coal mine is still to be managed by the Coal Board.

(c) the constitution of a Board or managing body, by whatever name called, for carrying the Coal-mining in the allotment of the coal mine;

(d) the terms and manner in which services of the coal mine shall be maintained;

(e) any other matter in relation to which such rule is required to be, or may be, made.

(5) Every rule made by the Central Government under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, where it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; and, notwithstanding, any such modification or amendment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

18. (1) Nothing contained in this Act shall apply to any coal mine

(a) owned, managed or controlled by Government, or by a Government company or by a corporation wholly owned, managed or controlled by Government;

(b) owned or managed by a company engaged in the production of iron and steel;

Provided that clause (b) shall not extend to such part of the coal mine or production thereof as may, in the opinion of the Central Government, be in excess of the requirements for the production of iron and steel by the company owning or managing such coal mine:

Provided further that any coal mine or part of any such coal mine as is referred to in the foregoing provision in excess of the requirements for the production of iron and steel by the company owning or managing such coal mine shall not be sold, disposed, transferred or otherwise disposed of except with the previous approval of the Central Government.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply where there is any dispute as to the ownership or right of disposal of Government, Government company or corporation referred to in clause (b) of that subsection, or a company referred to in clause (b) of that subsection, or where it is any coal mine or any machinery, equipment, vehicle, or other property which is in such coal mine or is used for the purpose of such coal mine.

19. If any difficulty arises or is apprehended in the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may, by notification, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, remove the difficulty.

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiry of a period of two years from the appointed day.

20. (1) The Coal Mines (Mining, Over and Management) Ordinance, 1903, is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in this Ordinance or any action taken under the Ordinance as repealed (including any proclamation, declaration or order made thereunder), shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act.

Coal mine to which this Act shall not apply.
